INTRODUCTION

K 2

This List is mainly an inventory of the books and pamphlets on Abraham Lincoln as they stand on the shelves in the biographical section of the Library. To this are added references to collected works containing biographical sketches, orations, etc., also a list of the writings of Lincoln as they appear in the card catalogue.

It does not contain titles of magazine articles except where they have been separately treated as monographs.

It is not presented as a statement of the entire contents of the Library on the subject, as further research would undoubtedly discover much more material in collected works and miscellaneous compilations.

As indicated above, the work is intended to serve as an inventory or check list, not as a bibliography.

"The remarks on the Address as originally prepared were too voluminous for a Magazine. I therefore condensed and reduced them to three papers which appeared in the Galaxy for October, November and December 1873. The reception of those papers by the public, led the publishers and others to request that the numbers which had appeared and the whole of the omitted portions with attending details and such additions as I thought proper might be embodied in a volume which is herewith submitted."
